24. Candidates shall not carry prohibited items into the examination venue and shall not indulge in malpractice, unfair means or any other misconduct. Any candidate found under the influence of intoxicants/inebriated or involved in malpractice may be disqualified and dealt with as per applicable rules.
25. Canvassing in any form, including political or outside influence, shall lead to disqualification.
26. Any fake/fabricated application or registration, including misuse of the name/photo of any dignitary or other person, may invite cancellation of candidature and legal action under applicable law. The candidate and/or person facilitating such activity may be held responsible.
27. BMHRC/Competent Authority shall not be responsible for any consequences arising from incorrect information or documents furnished by the candidate. The competent authority reserves the right to verify the authenticity of the certificates submitted. If found incorrect, the candidature will be cancelled without any further notice.
28. The decision of BMHRC/Competent Authority regarding eligibility, acceptance/rejection of applications, conduct of examination, examination centre, merit list, selection, debarment, initial posting and other recruitment matters shall be final and binding.
29. No correspondence or personal inquiries regarding eligibility, application status, selection, merit or other recruitment matters shall be entertained, except as specifically provided in the advertisement.
30. In case of any dispute arising out of this recruitment, the courts at Bhopal shall have jurisdiction.

31. Candidates are advised to regularly visit the official BMHRC website for recruitment-related notices, updates, examination information, results and instructions.
